Mr. William Howard

Senior Vice Chancellor, General Counsel &amp; Secretary

Sir.

Please be advised that Purchase College is currently perusing severe retaliatory actions against me that may cause severe health problems that may lead to a tragedy due to my disability. Please contact my adviser Mrs. Kathleen Ceng; Her supervisor Mrs. Danielle DAgosto; Mr John Taylor. For the specifics of the issues. Mr. Taylor is the head of registrar. This person may be aware of all the abuses that are going the building of students affairs and the possible targeting to my self in revenge for all of my complaints with the OCR for violation of civil rights that had been sent to you. Since I am graduating in May of this year, Students affair is making an illegal effort to suspend me from the school. It is my intention to seek criminal charges to be filed if anything happens to my integrity and health, since student affairs actions are premeditated. I hereby respectfully ask your intervention on this matter.

Madame.

You must contact Mrs. kowalczyk; since at time there was suspension there was protected status by OCR that you were aware of, and pending legal procedures (mediation) scheduled for May 1st; any contact with the school will be through the school legal department. Please note that if and when the appeal is denied, kindly specify if the suspension apply to attending classes too. I will not discuss anything related to legal procedures or due process with any school official with the exception of SUNY attorneys. Anything pertaining to the suspension is now a legal matter.

Dear Edward,

As for your request to have your advisor present, no other individual is allowed to be present during the initial conference except the accused student and the initial conference officer, since you have the right to go to a hearing if you disagree with the finding and/or sanction. However, Ms. Ceng can be present in the hearing as a support person. At the time of your initial conference her role as a support person and your rights in a hearing will be explained to you if you request a hearing.

I would also like to take this time to address your email sent on February 13, 2013 at 8:33 am requesting that your initial conference be reschedule for February 19, 2013. According to your class schedule you do not have classes on Tuesday, therefore, I have rescheduled your initial conference for 1:00 pm on February 19, 2013. Please be aware that this meeting will take place in the Student Services Building, 3rd floor, room 322.

Finally, please know that if you fail to show for the date and time of your rescheduled initial conference all matters described will be considered true and you will waive your right to a hearing. In turn, you will be responsible for any finding or sanction imposed. Additionally, you will have a right to appeal within three working days of receipt of your finding letter to the Vice President of Student Affairs.

Sorry John about this incident.

On several occasion I have file complaints on several police officers and their procedure, although in many cases their procedures are understandable. As I have spoken to several Police Supervisors before about stooping me unnecessary in campus because of my age, there was an agreement that I was not going to be targeted for any reason and for any unnecessary cause in the future. They were worn that if there was another unnecessary police contact, there were be consequences, so here they are. Please understand that this has nothing to do with you or housing, it is just with police procedures. I do some independent voluntary work with police all the time regarding police procedures and through the years I have learned that legal documents is the only way they work by the book. I hope you understand that litigation against SUNY is a must. The system is not contemplated for adults (mature) students. The school does not know or have the experience to handle unconventional students like me. That needs to be change. Police will think twice now before proceeding out of their jurisdiction again.

About the garden coordinator, she must understand that people cannot be treated like criminal in issues so civil and mundane than the one today. If she cannot procede in professional way and that her poor judgement can cause other people serious problem, then she should not coordinate anything. If the garden is only for selected students, then there should be a "no trespassing" sign posted or the door looked, otherwise, is open anyone. It is my mistake, but my mother and I did not mean any harm. It was very sad to see my mother (she is 89) looking at all her work destroyed today. That is way I was so upset.

Police were served with a 30 days notice, see enclosed (wish means..nothing just so they keep their distance).Police supervisor will come speak to my tonight.

Please this note and its contents, is just for you records and may not shared with anyone.

Sorry

John

Yesterday my mother and I went to the student garden and since it was so run down, we clean up and put some tomato seed in space about 2' by 2 '. Today, I went to put some water and all the what we did was taken out and destroyed. A very rude note was left there saying that I tampered with he garden,and a phone # was left. I felt really bad and upset about it, I called the person left told her to come and talk because ether I or her owe an apology to each other. She called the police, the police came and were very rude, they even threaten me with taking me to the station. It may be my mistake, by going to the garden but, this issue needs to be investigated, since the person that went to the police, obviously needs act in a more mature way. On the other hand there is no need to send the police for an issue that is not a police matter. i will take this issue further since I think cannot happens again. It seem that there is no way one can live in peace here in school.

I am sure this could have been handle in a different way

Ed

Subject: Thank You

Thank you all for your understanding and patience during Saturday's all-day power outage. I know it was quite an inconvenience to be without electricity all day until almost midnight, but the time allowed the contractor to fully prepare the annex building (trailers off Lincoln Avenue) for electrical power there.

Enjoy the rest of the weekend.

RE: Scheduled ending of summer apartment housing MORALES, EDWARD

Sent: Thursday, August 2, 2012 1:48 PM

To: Balcom, Emily

Please prior email.

Again, and final; you are not providing accommodation as mandated by Federal Laws. I am not leaving but you are asking me out by the 3rd of this months. It is impossible for me to leave that soon, (tomorrow) this shows your poor and discriminatory judgement. I most likely be able to leave by the 11th of this month and that will be to a shelter, and that only if the college issues an eviction or vacating notice. I will stay in campus if you stay within the law. You still think this is a private school, but it is not. You have been notified of your possible retaliation and consequences of your unprofessional action before. Please understand that this issues is being closely monitored by s Federal Agency, and that retaliatory action will be prosecuted. You still think this is a private school, but it is not.

Another of you improper email, and I will have to file a complaint with the USDOE civil rights, for retaliation.

Dear Edward,

Since you informed the Office of Residence Life that you will not be residing on campus this fall semester, please be advised that check-out for summer residents is on Friday, August 3, 2012.

You can check out at the J-2-1 complex office in the Olde apartments between 9:00 am and 4:00 pm.

Hi Edward,

Thank you for confirming that you wish to live on campus for the fall semester at the lowest rate we offer.

Residence hall triple rooms are in the freshmen-only buildings, so the next option would be an apartment triple. An apartment triple is a one-bedroom apartment in the Commons apartments that includes a common area and a kitchen. Since a kitchen is included, a meal plan is not required.

I will have Joyce email you the exact cost of the apartment triple on Tuesday, but I believe it is ~$3,000 per semester.

We will notify you during the month of August when you will move from your summer assignment to your fall apartment.

Thank you,

John
